

AGDAV Centenary Public School

The school celebrated Global Handwashing Day by organising a special assembly in which teachers acquainted children about the importance of hand wash after and before meals. They also accompanied students to the nearby slum area where they distributed items to the underprivileged and told them about the importance of handwashing. Children acted as agents of change and imbibed the good practices of hygiene learned at school to give it back to their homes and communities.