NEW DELHI: Arvind Gupta DAV Centenary Public School, Model Town, invited parents to the school and celebrated Parents' Day.

It is rightly said, "Parental love is the only love that is selfless, unconditional and forgiving. Parents are the only ones obligated to love you; from the rest of the world you have to earn it." They are those special people who have the patience to bring up their child in the best possible way.

The day started with the welcome of parents and then a hawan ceremony was held to seek the blessings of God. The ceremony was also attended by principal Mala Sood, supervisory head Sonu Sahni, teachers and students. They chanted Gayatri mantra and other mantras and recited the Shanti Path. The hawan ended with the distribution of prasad.

Parents shared their experiences and were happy to learn that their wards were getting not only academic knowledge but also spiritually grooming. Parents then narrated short moral stories in classrooms as stories form an integral part of a child's life and parents are the best storytellers. It was delightful to witness the parents narrating stories to children.

The children were happy to have parents narrate stories at school.

Parents came up with many stories like the Golden Touch, The tail of the pencil, the Greedy Dog, The lion and the mouse, The fox and the sour grapes. The staff members were amazed to see proper voice modulation, facial expressions and creative props. The children enjoyed the stories. Parents took many memories back home.

Later on the teachers in their classes explained the importance of parents in our lives and told students that they should respect and love their parents and grandparents.

Children took part in a family photo frame activity in which they pasted their family photograph in their files. Everyone appreciated the efforts made by the staff members and the students.
