NEW DELHI: Arvind Gupta DAV Centenary Public School, Model Town, celebrated National Unity Day on Sardar Vallabhbai Patel's birth anniversary.

The day started with a pledge by students in the morning assembly. This was followed by a marathon "Run for Unity" organised by AGDAV School in collaboration with Guru Teg Bahadur Public School, GD Goenka School, The Srijan School and Queen Mary's School Northend. The marathon was held from AGDAV School to Queen Mary School Northend and back. The race was flagged off from AGDAV School by Mala Sood, principal AGDAV School and Rima Ailawadi, principal, GD Goenka School and Baljeet Kaur principal Guru Teg Bahadur School. A large number of students from all the four schools participated in the run. The event brought everyone together and stressed on the importance of the nation's unity and integrity. Students from all the four schools took part actively to make this event a success. The sports faculty and students along with the principals of the participating schools gathered on the premises of AGDAV School for the prize distribution ceremony.

AGDAV students also took part in a classroom discussion on the life and teachings of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel. "Following the footprints and ideology" activity was conducted in which students expressed their views on his simple lifestyle and were motivated to promote national integration. The event enhanced the respect of students for Sardar Vallabhbai Patel.
