

htbeyond

short stories

■ Participants of the Rally for Rivers on the school premises

HT

RALLY FOR RIVERS ORGANISED AT ARVIND GUPTA DAV SCHOOL, MODEL TOWN

NEW DELHI: The students and delegates of Arvind Gupta DAV Centenary Public School, Model Town, joined the 'Rally for Rivers' campaign to revive the rivers of India. The school students and staff members pledged to support the project that started with an assembly address by students of Class 6, wherein students stressed on the importance of rivers and the need to save them. This was followed by an oath-taking ceremony by the staff and students to support the campaign. A poster-making competition on the topic 'Save Rivers' was organised. The best poster was submitted by an alumnus named Kshitij. A beautiful theme setting was done by art teachers Shabana Begum and Shailandra.