

Arvind Gupta DAV Centenary holds colourful annual day

■ Students presented a ballet highlighting the importance of the different elements of nature

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Arvind Gupta DAV Centenary Public School, Northend-Model Town, staged a power-packed ballet as part of its annual day celebrations.

The school also highlighted its myriad achievements and felicitated student achievers in the special programme.

Minister of science and technology, Dr Harsh Vardhan, was the chief guest for the occasion while Nisha Neshin, director PS II DAVCMC, New Delhi was the guest of honour.

The dignitaries and the audience were accorded a hearty welcome by the school band which was followed by a mesmerising dance.

The mainstay of the event was a ballet performance titled 'Vasundhara' which narrated a story based on the power of the five elements of nature. The show was accompanied by a blend of music and dance performances.

Principal Mala Sood highlighted the prominent achievements of the school in the annual school report.

The toppers of CBSE and other merit holders were also felicitated on the occasion.

The school magazine Udbodh, documenting the accomplishments and talents of AGDAVians, was unveiled by the principal.

The cultured extravaganza that showcased the varied talents of students was lauded by the chief guest and other dignitaries present.

The dignitaries motivated the students to shine in all their endeavours with dedication and sincerity.

The school also highlighted the importance of good health and exercising which play an important role in the overall development of a child.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by school manager Nanak Chand.